

Rock Valley College

Termination Date for Administrators and Classified Employees Procedure

RVC Administrative Procedure (3:20.130)

The official termination date shall be the last day an employee actually works. Their final check would include payment for accumulated vacation. The personnel report shall state the last working day as the official termination date.

Reference: Board Report #2386

Implemented: February 18, 1974