Mandated Reporters: ANCRA provides that all personnel of institutions of higher education are mandated reporters. 325 ILCS 5/4. Mandated reporters are required to immediately report to the Department of Children and Family Services ("DCFS") whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that a child with whom they have contact in their professional capacity may be abused or neglected.

Students enrolled in an academic program leading to a position as a child care worker, school service personnel, and/or education degree, as well as medical personnel, including but not limited to residents and interns, are also mandated reporters pursuant to ANCRA.

Cooperation: Employees and students are required to cooperate in the investigation of any report made pursuant to ANCRA.

No Retaliation: Retaliation against any employee, student, volunteer, or other individuals who makes a good faith report of abuse or neglect or who participates in any investigation of abuse or neglect under ANCRA is prohibited. Anyone found to have engaged in prohibited retaliation may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination, expulsion, and/or other sanctions.

Procedures to implement this policy will be published through the College's Human Resources Department and made available in that office, the Student Affairs office, and the College's website.

Minors on Campus: The College recognizes that minors may accompany adults during visits to campus. Rock Valley College's practice is to be respectful and supportive of the families and children of students, employees, and visitors. As an institution of higher education, the College provides educational and support services primarily to adult learners, although a variety of activities, classes, and programs are offered to minors. The College is a public institution, available to its students and the general public who may wish to use its facilities, learn about its services and programs, or attend functions on the campus. The general public has the right to use the College's facilities and to visit the College during normal hours of operation.

Rock Valley College

In general, the College does not supervise minors outside of officially sanctioned programs and activities, and neither the College, nor its employees, agents, or students may accept responsibility to do so on behalf of the College. The College accepts neither responsibility, nor liability for accidents or injuries that may occur to a non-enrolled minor while on campus.

Responsibility and liability lie completely with the minor's parent or responsible adult.

Minors shall not be present at an employee's workplace or accompany a student to his/her classes (e.g., office, classroom, labs, etc.) in lieu of other childcare arrangements. Exceptions may be granted by the College President or appropriate vice president for College planned special events.

No student, employee, or visitor to the College shall leave a minor unattended at the College, including outside of classrooms where a parent or accompanying adult is attending an activity at the College, in campus buildings, on campus grounds, or in a vehicle.

Unattended minors who are on campus without a parent or accompanying adult may be asked by Rock Valley College Police to leave; may be referred to the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS); or may be referred to the local police, depending upon the circumstances (e.g., child's age, address, behavior, etc.).
