Rock Valley College

RVC Board Policy 2:10.100

Acceptance of Contributions

Rock Valley College may identify financial needs for special projects, program development, and other educational endeavors that cannot be met through available funding sources. The college may seek external resources to meet identified needs. In addition, in accordance with all other policies and procedures, the Board of Trustees may accept contributions to the College to meet financial, programmatic, and capital needs.

Reference: Board Report 8119
Implemented: April 8, 2014
Revised: December 19, 2023; October 28, 2025

RVC is an equal opportunity educator and employer.